

University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna
Institute of Law

Research Platform
Nano – Norms – Nature

ÖFG II ÖSTERREICHISCHE
FORSCHUNGSGEMEINSCHAFT

universität
wien

Department of Philosophy

GOOD NANO
BAD NANO
– WHO DECIDES?

Dec. 1–2, 2016

nano-norms-nature.univie.ac.at/conference

University
of Vienna

An Interdisciplinary Conference

organized by

Angela Kallhoff and Claudia Schwarz-Plaschg

(Research Platform Nano-Norms-Nature, University of Vienna)

in collaboration with

Iris Eisenberger and Andreas Huber

(University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna).

University of Vienna (main building)

Marietta-Blau-Saal, Universitätsring 1, 1010 Vienna

Participation is free of charge. Registration is not required.

GOOD NANO BAD NANO – WHO DECIDES?

University of Vienna
Marietta-Blau-Saal,
Universitätsring 1
1010 Vienna

Thursday, Dec. 1

- 14.00 Welcome Address
- 14.15 Juliane Filser (Bremen):
Pros and cons of ENP regulation and ways towards a sustainable use
- 15.00 Angela Kallhoff (Vienna):
Ecocentric evaluation
of nano-release
- 16.15 Bernadette Bensaude-Vincent (Paris):
Toward an object-centred
evaluation of nanotechnology
- 17.00 Tsjalling Swiestra (Maastricht):
First and third person's perspectives
on morality

Friday, Dec. 2

- 09.30 Lotte Krabbenborg (Nijmegen):
Nanotechnology
and the public sphere
- 10.15 Franz Seifert (Vienna):
The deliberative turn
in nanotechnology policy
- 11.30 Christopher Coenen (Karlsruhe):
Creating objects of deliberation and governance
- 14.15 Diana Bowman (Arizona):
Science – Democracy – Industry:
Who is in charge of regulating nanomaterials?
- 15.00 –
16.30 ROUNDTABLE:
REGULATION MEETS
PUBLIC OPINION
- Iris Eisenberger (Vienna):
Defining nanomaterials
Andreas Huber (Vienna):
Labeling nanomaterials
Claudia Schwarz-Plaschg (Vienna):
Evaluating nano labeling
- 17.00 Concluding Discussion